

Sir,

In the competitive marketplace, the consuming public must be allowed to dictate the manner and price of the services provided. The NBA should relish any medium which diverts listeners attention from preprogrammed content, i.e. CD, MP3, and back to the airways. I strongly urge the FCC to reject NBA
Petition 04-160